

Notice to applicants – consent to the disclosure of information

In the interests of transparency, the agenda and minutes of meetings of the Western Australian Planning Commission may appear on the Department of Planning, Lands and Heritage website, which is a website that is available to the public. Accordingly, in signing this form, you acknowledge that except for information about your business, professional, personal or commercial and financial affairs, the information you have provided in support of your application may be placed on the website.

Important information for applicants

- 1 Under section 144(1) of the Planning and Development Act 2005, an applicant may, within 28 days of being notified of a decision of the WAPC to refuse an application, make a written request to the WAPC to reconsider its decision. Under section 151(1) of the Planning and Development Act 2005, an applicant may, within 28 days of being notified of a decision of the WAPC to approve an application subject to conditions, make a written request to the WAPC to reconsider a condition/s.
- 2 A request for reconsideration is to be submitted within 28 days of the date of the WAPC's decision and is to include:
  - This completed form 3A.
  - The correct fee for reconsideration in accordance with the current schedule of fees.
  - Additional information or justification to warrant reconsideration of a decision or condition/s.
- 3 A request for reconsideration may not be accepted and will be returned to the applicant with the submitted fee if these requirements are incorrect or incomplete.
